

STRATEGIC CSR NETWORK INVITES STUDENTS FROM ST. PAUL'S COLLEGE TO TUTOR 22 DISADVANTAGED CHILDREN IN EASTERN DISTRICT

(Hong Kong, 14 November 2015) — Strategic CSR Network Limited (“Strategic CSR Network”), working in partnership with Methodist Epworth Village Community Centre, Social Welfare, invited 20 senior students from St. Paul’s College to serve as volunteer tutors for 22 underprivileged children living in Chai Wan today.

This latest effort marks the first time that Strategic CSR Network has sought participation from secondary school. Leveraging SPRG’s social network, Strategic CSR Network also successfully liaises with different parties to collective support various community events.

During the occasion, the children were divided into small groups based on their grade level. Student tutors helped the children prepare for their examinations; covering such subjects as Chinese, English, mathematics and general studies. Children of Southeast Asian ethnicity received particular attention, specifically on their Chinese reading and writing skills.

Following the tutorials, Strategic CSR presented beverages, meal coupons and recycled bag to the children, thanks to generous support from China Mengniu Dairy Co. Ltd. (HKEx: 2319), Fairwood Holdings Limited (HKEx: 52), Hung Fook Tong Group Holdings Limited (HKEx: 1446) and Melco International Development Limited (HKEx: 200), respectively.

Thank you St. Paul’s College for the tremendous effort for this event.
